

LAISHA WILDLIFE SAFARIS

"Your Journey into the Wild Begins Here"

+255 760 600092 | www.laishawildlifesafaris.com | info@laishawildlifesafaris.com

PERSONAL PROFILE;

Lameck Mutajwaha, Tanzanian and perched in Arusha. When not out in the field Safaris, I'm much based in Arusha office and I'm Managing Director of Laisha Wildlife Safaris. I'm an enthusiastic Guide an easy relaxed manner and enormously experienced Kilimanjaro Guide. I have a profound knowledge of the bush and an ethical style of explain wildlife, which when combined with my humour charm makes for an unforgettable Safaris experience.

I have worked with ADAP (Association for the development of Protected Area-Address in Switzerland: ADAP, 15, Rue des savoises, 1205 Geneva) as Tour Guide.

I'm an experienced and reliable Tour guide and have worked with students from Switzerland and France who came to Tanzania to conduct research, few names to mention;

- 1.Helen Weber-Student from the University of Applied Sciences of Western Switzerland
- 2.Maria Fesselet- Student from the University of Applied Sciences of Western Switzerland
- 3.Timmothee Strinning-Student from the University of Applied Sciences of Western Switzerland
- 4.Celine Buchschacher- Student from the University of Applied Sciences of Western Switzerland
- 5.Camille Varet-University Local Development and Environment 2, rue Bayard 05000 GAP France
- 6.Juget Sophie - Student from the University of Applied Sciences of Western Switzerland.

In addition I have worked as a patrol in Mlele game control area with Inyonga Village Game Scouts. During this period I conducted resource inventories and managed tourism in these protected areas and also highly dedicated to our anti-poaching effort. I have also been worked with Robin Hunting Safaris as a day worker.

After my work in Mlele, I worked as an instructor at Sable Wildlife College handling Students from Sokoine University of Agriculture who came Arusha for their studies. Until December 2012 I was Operations Manager with Star Tours Company.

Having done these for many years, I consider myself to be most knowledgeable and well experienced to have legal Company Laisha Wildlife Safaris which no doubt offer: Camp & Lodges Safaris, Honey Moon Safaris, Budget & Luxury safaris, Walking Safaris, Mountain Trekking & Beach Holiday. When your mind click to have any safaris, quick response should direct go to Laisha Wildlife Safaris since we know how to play in full control to organize Safaris to meet your expectation.

We can be easily reached via; info@laishawildlife safaris.com

+255 760600092

Geneva, the 1st of February 2006

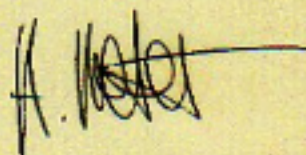

CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

By the present one, I, Hélène Weber, student from the University of Applied Sciences of Western Switzerland, Natural Resource Department and trainer from the Association for the Development of Protected Areas (ADAP), certify that Mr. Lameck Mutajwaha fulfilled successfully his position of translator for 2 months, in November and December 2005.

Punctual and highly motivated, he has the advantage of speaking Swahili and Konongo, which facilitated my contacts with the local population.

Of an excellent English level, Mr. Lameck Mutajwaha shows himself a very reliable and helpful guide. His knowledge of the area facilitated my work in the villages, but also in the field, where he showed a good knowledge of wildlife and ecology.

I thus highly recommend his competences to any person needing the support of a translator.

Hélène Weber

Timothée Strinning
Mourat 61
1095 LUTRY
Switzerland
Tel.: + 41 21 791 54 41
Email: tstrinning@gmail.com
School:
University of Applied Sciences,
Lullier, 1254 Jussy/ Ge

Tabora, 28 August 2006

Work of Mr. Lameck L. Mutajwaha

Mr. Lameck Mutajwaha worked for me as an interpreter Swahili-English from the 24th of July to the 15th of October 2006. The purpose of my study was to do an assessment of communities through interviews around Ugalla Game Reserve, Tanzania. Mr. Lameck L. Mutajwaha worked with interest to fulfill my goals and made great efforts to understand the different respondents. He tried to find a maximum of relevant words of Sukuma, Nyamwezi and other ethnicity. He is a reliable guide who knows the area and the country very well.

I would recommend the services of Mr. Lameck L. Mutajwaha for further studies and projects as he worked devoted for me.

Timothée Strinning

T. Strinning

P.S.: His other contact is ADAP Mpanda, Association for the development of Protected Areas

Address in Switzerland: ADAP, 15, Rue des Savoises, 1205 Geneva

Timothée Strinning
Student of University of Applied Sciences, Geneva

e i l

École d'Informatique et de Télécom

ADAP
Association for the Development of Protected Area
15 rue des Savoises
1205 Geneva
Switzerland

University of Local Development and Environment
2, rue Bayard
05000 GAP
France

CERTIFICATE

TO

Mr. Lameck Leonce MUTAJWAHA

I the undersigned, Miss Camille Varet from the University of Local Development and Environment of Gap, am giving this certificate of work to Mr. Lameck L. Mtajwaha.

Mr. Lameck L. Mtajwaha worked as a translator and guide from 15 April 2006 to 30 July 2006 for my training in Rukwa region, Mpanda district, Inyonga division, South Western Tanzania.

Mr. Lameck L. Mtajwaha is a very good translator with a good level of written and spoken English, Swahili and a lot of local languages.

He is also someone who can transmit the Tanzanian culture very easily. He of course knows the country in all its details and aspects.

Mr. Lameck L. Mtajwaha is very professional and has a very good communication not only with the locals but also with the tourists who come to visit. He is also somebody you can trust who shows a great sense of responsibilities.

I will highly recommend him to work with tourists who intend to visit the area.

Montpeyroux, Decembre 2008

Camille VARET

ADAP
Association for the Development
of Protected Area
15 rue des Savoises
1205 Geneva
Switzerland

e i l

Ecole d'ingénieurs de Lullier

University of Applied Sciences
of Western Switzerland /
Nature Management
Department

CERTIFICATE

TO

Mr. Lameck L. MUTAJWAHA

I the undersigned, Miss Céline Buchschacher from the University of Applied Sciences of Western Switzerland, am giving this certificate of work to Mr. Lameck L. Mutajwaha.

Mr. Lameck L. Mutajwaha worked as a translator and guide from 15 July 2007 to 15 September 2007 for my research established in Rukwa region, Mpanda district, Inyonga division, South Western Tanzania.

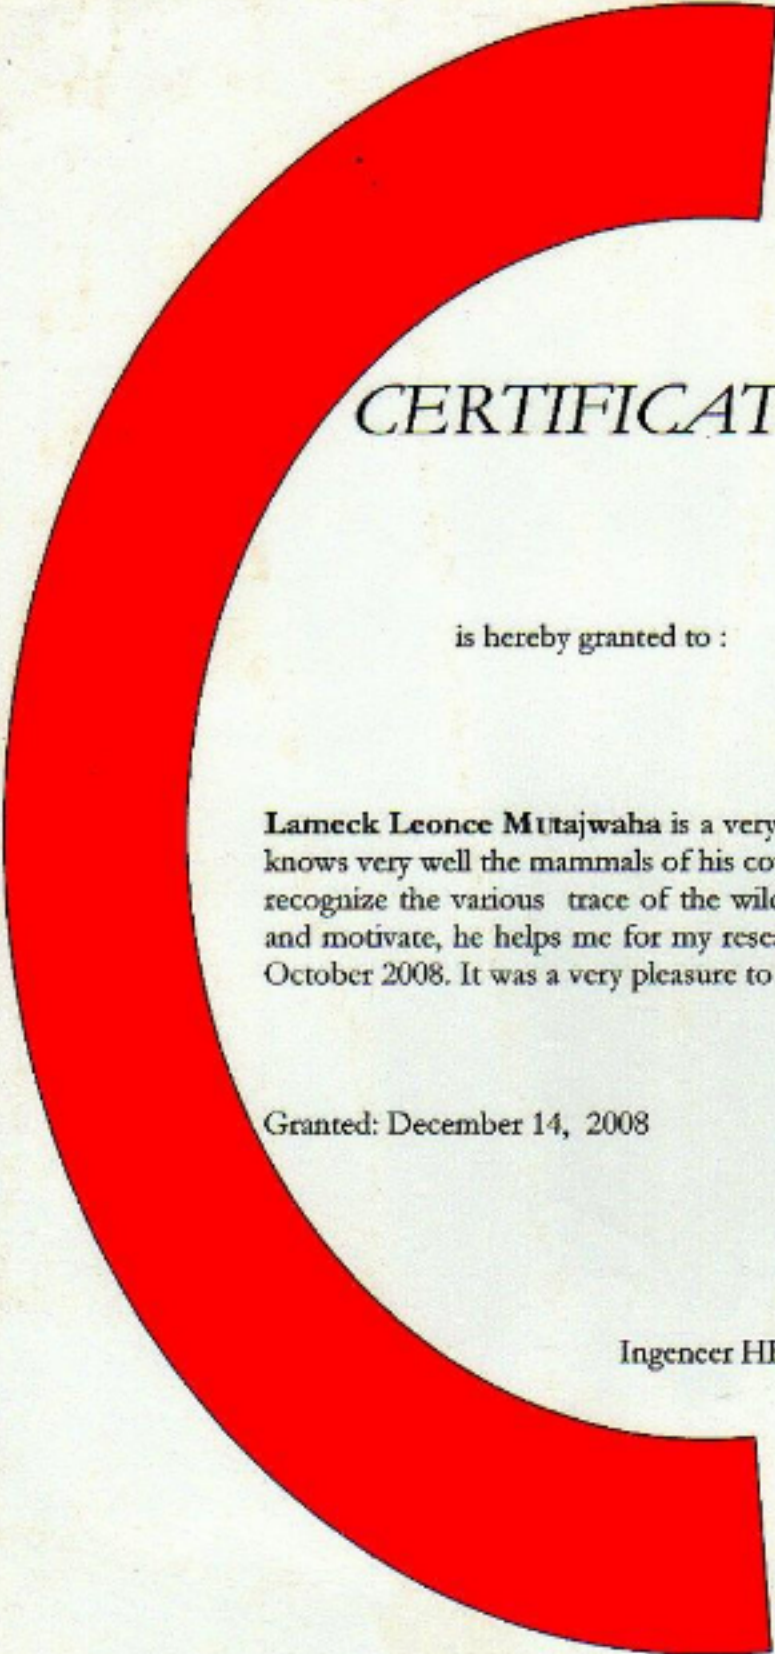

Mr. Lameck L. Mutajwaha is a very reliable translator and has a good level of written and spoken English, Swahili and local languages. I highly recommend him for this job.

Mr. Lameck L. Mutajwaha is also a very reliable guide who knows the area and the country well.

He is a trustworthy person and shows a very good sense of responsibilities in doing his job. He is in the habit of working with European people and I will highly recommend him to tourist who intend to visit the area.

Geneva, January 2008

Céline BUCHSCHACHER

CERTIFICATE

is hereby granted to :

Lameck Leonce Mutajwaha is a very good translator and he knows very well the mammals of his country and he can recognize the various trace of the wild fauna. Very efficient and motivate, he helps me for my research between July and October 2008. It was a very pleasure to work with him.

Granted: December 14, 2008

Juget Sophie
Ingencer HES Lullier, Switzerland

